

Livingston Ripley Waterfowl Conservancy Photography Contract

General Conditions for Photographing Birds at Livingston Ripley Waterfowl Conservancy (LRWC):

- Reservations for Photographer Fridays must be booked and paid by end of day Thursday prior.
- Maximum of 3 photographers onsite per Friday.
- Photographers must meet with a member of the LRWC staff for set-up and general instructions prior to photographing.
- Feeding, touching, or harassment of any birds is strictly prohibited.
- Photography of adjoining estate property (including buildings and gardens) is strictly prohibited.
- The sale of packaged media with LRWC logo or branding is prohibited.
- Acknowledgment of Livingston Ripley Waterfowl Conservancy in the credits of the publication, with prior approval, is required.
- Copies of digital files containing photographs and videos taken at LRWC must be provided for use in LRWC publications upon request (with proper credit to photographer).

Refusal to abide by the general conditions stated in this contract will result in the forfeiture of all images captured at LRWC and future opportunities to photograph at the Conservancy.

Session Description:

Professional and amateur photographers welcome. Participants may enter selected enclosures only. Photographers may be onsite between the hours of 10:00 am to 4:00 pm.

Session Fees (based on one photographer):

- Day Pass for one selected Friday: $20
- Bundle Pass for four Fridays of your choice: $60 (visits must be scheduled with LRWC office prior to arrival)

The Conservancy does not guarantee the results of the photography session. Working with live birds and unpredictable weather conditions poses a risk for less than ideal photos.
